AOCS Abstract Submission Guidelines & Agreement

Thank you for your interest in submitting an abstract for the 17th AOCS Latin American Congress and Exhibition on Fats, Oils, and Lipids.

Please review the AOCS submission guidelines and agreement. If your abstract does not comply with these requirements, you will be asked to adjust the text before a final decision can be made by the committee.

Abstract Submission and Review

Submissions will be accepted until April 20, 2017; notification of acceptance will be sent on or about May 15.

- Abstracts will be printed in the language submitted. To submit both Spanish and English, please complete two forms.
- Submissions are evaluated separately using the following criteria:
 - Relevance to session topic
 - Creativity and originality of content
 - Clarity of abstract
 - Free of commercial content (trade names, trademarked products, etc.)
- Do not include images, tables, graphics, or commercial content (trade names, trademarked products, etc.)
- Carefully proofread and check your submission for accuracy. Abstracts will be published as submitted.

Registration Fees and Travel Expenses

When an abstract is accepted, the presenting author is required to attend the meeting to present, must register for the Congress, and pay the special, discounted registration fee. Each presenter is also responsible for his/her travel and accommodation expenses, unless written confirmation of funding assistance is provided by Congress Management.

Permission

By submitting an abstract, you hereby grant AOCS the non-exclusive, royalty-free right to (a) publish the accepted abstract online, available to all registered attendees two weeks prior to meeting start date, and (b) publish your complete presentation online after the meeting. If you do not grant permission to AOCS to publish your complete presentation, you have the option to deny permission during the submission process.

Indemnification Agreement

By submitting this abstract, you hereby represent and warrant that, to the best of your knowledge:

- (a) the content of the abstract and of the presentation is accurate;
- (b) the abstract and presentation do not violate any copyright, proprietary, confidentiality, or personal rights of others;
- (c) the presentation will be educational in nature, will not promote any product or service, and will not contain any false or misleading statements regarding any products or services or include materials that are slanderous, libelous, or otherwise illegal; and
- (d) you are authorized to make these representations and to agree to the terms of the AOCS Abstract Submission Guidelines & Agreement on behalf of your company or institution.

You hereby indemnify and hold harmless the American Oil Chemists' Society, its officers, directors, staff, agents, and representatives from and against any and all claims, actions, losses, demands, costs, reasonable attorneys' fees, and other expenses arising from the inaccuracy or breach of any of the foregoing representations and warranties.
